Predicting Student Earnings After College

Tommy Truong & Miranda Strand

The area of each point corresponds to the magnitude of the college's mean graduate income. Colors correspond to the clusters containing each college.

The area of each point corresponds to the magnitude of the college's mean graduate income. Colleges with mean graduate income above the average are shown in blue; those below the average are in red.